who takes no interest on a loan
and accepts no bribes against the innocent.
Such a man will stand firm for ever.

CHORAL REFLECTION

Lord, For Thy Tender Mercy's Sake

Richard Farrant (c. 1530-1580)

*Lord, for thy tender mercy's sake Lay not our sins to our charge
But forigve that is past and give us grace to amend our sinful lives.*

To decline from sin and incline to virtue.

That we may walk in a perfect heart Before thee now and ever more. Amen.

CANTICLE of MARY

Please be stand. All make the sign of the cross at the beginning of the canticle.

ANTIPHON Choir first time, then all repeat

When Je - sus be-gan his min-is-try he was a-bout thir-ty years old, and was thought to be the son of Jo-seph.

Ma - gni - fi - cat! My soul re-joic-es in my God.

My being ✠ proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit finds joy in God my Savior;
for he has looked upon his servant in her lowliness
all ages to come shall call me blessed. R̄

God who is mighty has done great things for me,
holy is his name;
his mercy is on those who fear him
from generation to generation. R̄

He has shown great strength with his arm,
dispersed the proud in the conceit of their hearts;
he has put down the mighty from their thrones,
and exalted those of low degree. R̄

The hungry he has given every good thing,
while the rich he has sent empty away.
He has upheld Israel his servant,
ever mindful of his mercy. R̄

The mercy which he promised unto our Fathers,
to Abraham and his seed:
mercy promised to our fathers forever and evermore. R̄

Give glory to the Father almighty,
to his Son Jesus Christ the Lord,
to the Spirit who dwells in our hearts
both now and forever. Amen. R̄
