A FESTIVAL of CHRISTMAS CAROLS

Angels We Have Heard on High

GLORIA

Angels we have heard on high Sweetly singing o'er the plains.
And the mountains in reply Echo back their joyous strains.
Gloria in excelsis Deo*! Gloria in excelsis Deo!
Glory to God in the Highest*

Shepherds, why this jubilee? Why your joyous strains prolong?
Say what may the tidings be Which inspire your heavenly song.
Gloria in excelsis Deo! Gloria in excelsis Deo!

Come to Bethlehem and see Him whose birth the angels sing;
Come adore on bended knee, Christ the Lord, the newborn King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo! Gloria in excelsis Deo!

See him in a manger laid, Whom the angels praise above;
Mary, Joseph, lend your aid, While we raise our hearts in love.
Gloria in excelsis Deo! Gloria in excelsis Deo!

O Little Town of Bethlehem

ST. LOUIS

O little town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep The silent stars go by;
yet in thy dark streets shineth The everlasting Light;
the hopes and fears of all the years Are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary, And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep Their watch of wond'ring love.
O morning stars, together Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King, And peace to all on earth.

How silently, how silently, The wondrous gift is giv'n!
So God imparts to human hearts The blessings of his heav'n.
No ear may hear his coming, But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still The dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem! Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in; Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us, Our Lord Emmanuel!

It Came upon the Midnight Clear

CAROL

It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old, From angels bending Near the earth To touch their harps of gold: "Peace on the earth, good will to all From heaven's all gracious King;" The world in solemn stillness lay, To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come, With peaceful wings unfurled, And still their heav'nly music floats O'er all the weary world: Above its sad and lowly plains They bend on hov'ring wing, And ever o'er its Babel sounds The blessed angels sing.

And ye, beneath life's crushing load, Whose forms are bending low, Who toil along the climbing way with painful steps and slow; Look now! for glad and golden hours come swiftly on the wing; O rest beside the weary road And hear the angels sing.

For, lo, the days are hastening on, By prophet bards foretold, When with the ever circling years Comes 'round the age of gold; When peace shall over all the earth Its ancient splendors fling, And all the world give back the song Which now the angels sing.

Cantor first time, then all

For ev - er I will sing the good - ness of the Lord, the good - ness of the Lord

"With my chosen one I have made a covenant;
I have sworn to David my servant:
I will establish your dynasty forever and set up your throne through all ages."

He will say to me; "You are my father, my God, the rock who saves me!"
I will keep my love for him always; with him my covenant shall last.

Happy the people who acclaim such a God, who walk, O LORD, in the light of your face,
who find their joy every day in your name, who make your justice the source of their bliss.

A son is given us.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 96:1-2, 2-3, 11-12,13

Cantor first time, then all

To - day is born our Sav - ior, Christ the Lord.

Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all you lands.
Sing to the LORD and bless his name.

Let the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice;
let the sea and what fills it resound.
Let the plains be joyful and all that is in them!
Then shall the trees of the forest exult.

Announce his salvation, day after day.
Tell his glory among the nations;
among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

They shall exult before the LORD,
for he comes to rule the earth.
He shall rule the world with justice and the people with constancy.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 98:1, 2-3, 3-4, 5-6

All the ends of the earth have seen the sav - ing power of God.

Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done wondrous deeds;
His right hand has won victory for him,
his holy arm.

All the ends of earth have seen the salvation by our God.
Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands;
break into song; sing praise.

The LORD has made his salvation known, in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.
He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

Sing praise to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and melodious song;
With trumpets and the sound of the horn sing joyfully before the King, the LORD.

John 1:1-18

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us.

The Mass continues on page 14.

HOMILY

PROFESSION of FAITH

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All kneel. [and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Our God, heaven cannot hold Him Nor earth

He comes to reign: In the bleak mid-winter A stable-place sufficed The Lord God Almighty — Jesus Christ.

Enough for Him, whom cherubim Worship night

What can I give Him, Poor as I am? — If I were a Shepherd I would bring a lamb; If I were a Wise Man I would do my part, — Yet what I can I give Him, — Give my heart.

O Holy Night

Adolphe-Charles Adam

1. Oh holy night! The stars are brightly shining, It is the night of the dear Savior's birth. Long lay the world in sin and error pining, till He appeared and the soul felt its worth. A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices, for yonder breaks a new and glorious morn. Fall on your knees! Oh, hear the angel voices! Oh night divine, Oh night when Christ was born; Oh night divine, Oh night, Oh night Divine.

2. Led by the light of Faith serenely beaming, with glowing hearts by His cradle we stand. So led by light of a star sweetly gleaming, there came the wise men from Orient land. The King of Kings lay thus in lowly manger; in all our trials born to be our friend. He knows our need, to our weakness is no stranger, Behold your King! Before Him lowly bend! Behold your King, Before Him lowly bend!

3. Truly He taught us to love one another; His law is love and His gospel is peace. Chains shall He break for the slave is our brother; And in His name all oppression shall cease. Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we, Let all within us praise His holy name. Christ is the Lord! O praise His Name forever, His power and glory evermore proclaim. His power and glory evermore proclaim.

POSTLUDE

GUIDELINES for the RECEPTION of COMMUNION

FOR CATHOLICS

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

FOR OUR FELLOW CHRISTIANS

We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21). Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 § 4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 § 3).

FOR THOSE NOT RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

FOR NON-CHRISTIANS

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Washington, DC, November 1996.

*We wish you and your loved ones the peace and joy of the
